

Ashby Cum Fenby Parish Council NEWSLETTER JANUARY 2020

Dear Villagers,
Welcome to the January Newsletter.

Courtesy to other road users.

The roads around our village are in the main narrow, single track roads with no pavements which have to accommodate all types of motorised vehicles, cyclists, horses and pedestrians with or without dogs.

Please drive, ride or walk with due respect and courtesy to other road users.

Respect the 20mph Speed Limit in the village

Concerns have been raised regarding some road users are not keeping to the speed limit in the village. Residents and visitors are kindly asked to respect the 20mph speed limit.

Willow Lakes

Willow Lakes owners have recently presented new plans to erect a Café/restaurant to include basement function facility, viewing deck to the rear, with opening hours until 11pm. If you have any concerns/thoughts on this matter, please attend one of the Parish Council's meetings. The Parish Council is only allowed to oppose or support plans on planning regulation grounds.

As a democratic right, residents may also oppose or support applications either online or by letter to the following link:
